

Casa Rosi, Tuscany, Italy

This beautiful private Estate is perched 650 metres above sea level with amazing views over the surrounding countryside.

This beautiful private Estate is perched 650 metres above sea level with amazing views over the surrounding countryside.

Dominated by an 11th century Castillo, the hamlet consists of 5 newly renovated houses, all beautifully done by world-class designers David Mlinaric and Hugh Henry. They are charming, elegant and very atmospheric, combining lovely pieces of antique furniture sourced in Arezzo and Florence, pictures, rugs and lots of pretty china and pottery.

Casa Rosi has a tiny courtyard furnished for outside dining.

The whole estate, all 5 houses, can be taken together to accommodate a maximum of 30 people. Please call Sarah or Judy for more details and prices.

The houses are all private but within a stone's throw of each other, with winding lanes bordered by fragrant gardens and ancient trees.

The place is enchanting, beautifully kept and a mini paradise for those wishing to get away from it all. It is within easy driving distance of the hundreds of beautiful villages and sights of Tuscany including Siena, Arezzo, Rome and Florence.

The privately owned restaurant is well known in the region and serves delicious, traditional Italian cooking. A demi-pension formula can be applied for those wishing to dine out several times, or every evening, during the stay.
